

State of Tennessee
Department of State
Tennessee State Library and Archives
403 Seventh Avenue North
Nashville, Tennessee 37243-0312

CHAPMAN FAMILY PAPERS
1848-1881

Processed by:

Mary Washington Frazer
Archival Technical Services

Accession Number: 1969.009
Date Completed: January 15, 1969
Location: III-K-2
Microfilm Collection Number: 1256

MICROFILMED

INTRODUCTION

This collection contains primarily correspondence of the Chapman family members and friends. It includes Civil War letters, 1863-1864, written from Kentucky and Tennessee between William Harvey Chapman, Company I, 9th Tennessee Cavalry, USA, and his father, John Chapman. Other materials include advertisements, two Civil War-era ballads, legal documents, and pamphlets. Correspondents also include William L. Barbee, Ben F. Bratcher, Jason Chapman, John Evans, David Goin, E.H. Hollingsworth, Benjamin F. Mozingo, Nancy Robertson, and Joseph N. Travis.

The materials in this finding aid measures .42 linear feet. There are no restrictions on the material. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Chapman Family Papers may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Chapman Family Papers, 1848-1881, consisting of about 100 items, are composed of letters, documents, pamphlets, and advertisements. The bulk of the collection is made up of letters to and from members of the Chapman family and their friends.

Sixteen of the letters were written home by William Harvey Chapman, 1863-1864, while serving in the Union Army, Company I, 9th Tennessee Cavalry. He was a native of Campbell County, Tennessee, and wrote to his father in Fincastle, Tennessee, from Camp Nelson, Kentucky; Cumberland Gap, Knoxville, Nashville, and Gallatin, Tennessee. He was in Nashville from February through April 1864, and in Gallatin from May until he died of diarrhea on July 20, 1864. His first letter, August 12, 1863, from Camp Nelson, Kentucky, tells of his volunteering for the 9th Tennessee Cavalry. His letter from Cumberland Gap, October 5, 1863, says that he has “a good horse to ride...good clothes and equipage and most of the time plenty to eat.” The letter of December 17, 1863, describes what he saw at the siege of Knoxville. The next seven letters were written from or near Nashville, Tennessee, and tell that they “have neither horses nor guns...we have nothing to do only cook and eat...it makes a man feel so lazy and trifling.” He describes the beautiful farms around Nashville and the beautiful orchard in which they were camped. The last few letters are from his camp near Gallatin and he writes “we have not got horses yet...the 13th Tenn. Cav. is out every day pressing horses from the Rebble citizens.” His last letter, July 13, 1864, was written from a home near Gallatin on the Cumberland River where he was staying on account of his illness. He urges his father to come and see him.

There are eleven letters to him from his father, John Chapman, on his farm in Fincastle, all in 1864, with news of home, crops, et cetera; enclosing “baccow” for him and his friends; giving suggestions for treatment of his diarrhea; enumerating the produce the Union Army took from his farm for a small amount of money, et cetera.

There are five letters, 1854-1856, to William Harvey Chapman from his friend, William L. Barbee, who had gone to California to make his living. He writes from Sacramento in 1854-1855, and tells of the good climate; the scarcity of pretty girls; the prices of stock, wages for farm work, et cetera. He writes from Clarksville, El Dorado County, California, in 1856, telling again of prices, wages and how much money he has made; and commenting too on robbing and murdering being common occurrence. He emphasizes his desire to get a Tennessee girl for a wife and adjures William to “look out for a rib” for him.

Included are letters from some of William Harvey Chapman’s fellow men-in-arms. Ben F. Bratcher writes in 1864 of the good companionship of William in camp, and later writes about his death at Gallatin, as do David Goin and E.H. Hollingsworth and Wiley B. Smith.

Letters from friends to William in the army include four from John Evans, 1864, with farm news, prices of produce, diversions, etc.; and how much he misses “yore row in the field.”

Documents include a power of attorney for John Chapman to act as executor for William Chapman’s estate, 1858; a military pass for John Chapman to go from Knoxville to Gallatin, July 27, 1864; his voter’s registration certificate, Campbell County, Tennessee, 1866; and a summons from the U.S. Assessor’s office of the Internal Revenue, 1867.

Included in the papers are three pamphlets: one on Reconstruction which is a discussion of H.R. No. 439 additional and supplementary to an act entitled “An act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel states,” passed March 2, 1867, ...”; one on the record of the New York Democratic Convention titled Treason and Democracy, published by the Union Republican Congressional Committee, Washington, D.C., ca. 1868; and one headed, Report of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction (of the two houses of Congress) appointed under concurrent resolution of December 13, 1865, with direction “to inquire into the condition of the States which formed the so-called Confederate States of America, and report whether they or any of them are entitled to be represented in either house of Congress...”

There are two ballads included in the papers, one titled, “Things I don’t like to see,” which was sent by John Chapman to his son in the army, saying it was a song “a old Clown sung under the shade tree on the grindstone bench at my house one Evening...”; the other titled, “When I get in a weaving way,” sent by James Chapman to William in the army, and said to be a Negro song.

Advertisements include one for the Eastman National Business College, Chicago, Illinois, and Poughkeepsie, New York, describing the subjects and giving the tuition, 1866; an ad in the form of a letter in regard to the beginning of a new Republican paper, Knoxville, 1878, to be called “Knoxville Republican” and “to be the servant of the Party and not strive to be its Master”; and an ad of the World’s Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, New York, advertising its publication, “People’s Common Sense Medical Advisor,” and other articles sold with it at much reduced rates, such as a revolver, a watch, etc.

CONTAINER LIST

Box 1

1. Advertisements—1866-1878
2. Ballads—1864
3. Correspondence – Barbee, William L. 1854-1856
4. Correspondence – Bratcher, Ben F., n.d.; 1864
5. Correspondence – B through P – miscellaneous, 1860-1877
6. Correspondence – Chapman family –miscellaneous, 1856-1877
7. Correspondence – Chapman Jason, 1852-1855
8. Correspondence – Chapman John, 1864
9. Correspondence – Chapman, William Harvey, 1863-1864
10. Correspondence – Evans, John 1864
11. Correspondence – Mozingo, Benjamin F., 1863-1864
12. Correspondence – Robertson, Nancy and Wolery, 1857
13. Correspondence – Russell, John, Jane, and Mary, 1854-1881
14. Correspondence – S through U – miscellaneous, 1848-1865
15. Documents – 1858-1867
16. Pamphlets—1865-1868
17. Chapman family letters, 1854-1864 (typescripts)

NAME INDEX

This is a name index to the correspondence in the Chapman Family Papers together with the dates of the letters. The number in parentheses immediately following the name denotes the number of letters if more than one. The last figure is the number of the folder in which the letters are to be found.

- Barbee, William L. (5) 1854-1856, re: his life in California; prices of stock, wages, room and board rates, etc.; climate; amount of money he has made, 3
- Barron, C.B., 1872, re: worth of produce, 5
- Bratcher, Ben F. (2), 1864, re: comments on good companionship of William Harvey Chapman in camp; William Harvey Chapman's death of diarrhea, 4
- Chapman, Carmel, 1866, re: loss of two of Chapman sons in the war; lack of civil law; and his service in the war, 6
- Chapman, Elizabeth, 1864, re: family news, 6
- Chapman, George M., 1875, re: money being scarce but his work as a shoemaker being in demand, 6
- Chapman, I.S., 1864, re: smallpox in his regiment, 6
- Chapman, Israel and Joseph, 1848, re: price of pork; the Baptist Church and family news, 6
- Chapman, Jack, 1864, re: a small rebel raid, 6
- Chapman, Jason (2), 1852-1855, re: sickness of people and stock; prices of farm stock, etc.; the "no-nothing party" sweeping the state; outbreak of Negroes; a "nocking Spirit", 7
- Chapman, John (11), 1864, re: list of what the Union soldiers took from his farm; enclosing money and "baccow" for his son, William, in the army; suggestions for treatment of his son's illness; and general family news, 8
- Chapman, Joseph (3), 1858-1867, re: prices of pork, wheat, etc.; hog cholera; makeup of convention elected to frame a state constitution; and family news, 6
- Chapman, Theophilus, 1856, re: grasshoppers eating crops, drought, and the good turnpike near his farm, 6
- Chapman, Thomas, 1864, re: the war and sad that it came about; his love of the Constitution, etc., 6
- Chapman, William H., 1877, re: making sugar and other family news, 6
- Chapman, William Harvey, (16), 1863-1864, re: his life as a Union soldier; the siege of Knoxville; confiscations in Sumner and Campbell County, Tennessee; Nashville under Federal control, etc., 9
- Dagley, William R., 1864, re: his enlistment running out, 5
- Evans, John, (4) 1864, re: farm news; parties; prices, etc., 5
- Evans, William, 1864, re: hard times, 5
- Evans, William H. (2), 1860, re: value of farm produce and labor, 5
- Goin, David, 1864, re: death of William Harvey Chapman, 5

Hollingsworth, E.H., 1864, re death of William Harvey Chapman, 5
Jane (?), J.R., n.d., re: cure for chicken cholera, 5
Large, Martha A., n.d., re: a pound cake she is sending to William Harvey Chapman, 5
Large, Thomas W., 1864, re: family, 5
Meador, Jerome John, 1864, re: family, 5
Meador, W.I., (2), 1864, re: family, 5
Mozingo, Benjamin F., 1864, re: his homesickness; food available while camped near Nashville, Tennessee; 14,000 men in last 4-5 days gone up to Chattanooga on the train, 11
Perdew, G.C., 1863, re: drawing clothes for the soldiers, 5
Robertson, Nancy (3), 1858, re: dull times economically; farm news, 12
Robertson, Wolery and Nancy (2), 1857, re: lots he owns and money he has made in Jonesboro, Illinois, 12
Russell, John R. and Jane, (2), 1878-1881, re: prices of farm produce, 13
Russell, Mary L., 1864, re: family, 13
Siler, J.W., 1865, re: business, 14
Smith, Wiley B., 1864, re: death of William Harvey Chapman, 14
Travis, Joseph N. (4), 1861, re: family news; his fears that Yankees will get into east Tennessee, 14
Travis, Philip, 1848, re: family, 14
Tyler, J.W., 1864, re: lack of correspondence, 14
Usher, David and Elizabeth, 1864, hard times and the difficulty in writing for lack of paper, 14
Wright, John C., 1864, re: receipt for oats sold to the army, 14
Wright, Joseph P., 1861, re: family, 14