PREFACE.

THE Authorized, or King James, Version of the Holy Scriptures was published in 1611. In February, 1870, the Convocation of Canterbury appointed a committee to consider the subject of revising the Authorized Version. The committee reported in the following terms:

"That it is desirable that a revision of the Authorized Version of the Holy Scriptures be undertaken. That the revision be so conducted as to comprise both marginal renderings, and such emendations as it may be found necessary to insert in the text of the Authorized Version. That in the above resolutions we do not contemplate any new translation of the Bible, or any alteration of the language, except where, in the judgment of the most competent scholars, such change is necessary. That in such necessary changes the style of the language employed in the existing version be closely followed."

The report was adopted and two companies were formed for the revision of the Authorized Version of the Old and the New Testaments respectively, consisting of the most distinguished Biblical scholars in Europe and America.

The revision of the New Testament was undertaken first, and was published in 1881. The revision of the Old Testament was completed and issued in 1885. Universal interest was awakened by the publication of the two revisions. In the judgment of the most critical scholars the versions are pre-eminent for their accuracy and representation of the original Hebrew and Greek.

Large Family Bibles are published, which contain the text of the two versions in parallel columns. Valuable as these copies of the Holy Scriptures are, they are nevertheless inconvenient for use by Sunday-school teachers and others who require a hand Bible for ready reference. The great value of a Bible combining the two versions, also containing the Self-Pronouncing feature, and of such size as to be conveniently used, is evident at a glance.

This New Edition of the Holy Scriptures possesses advantages never before offered to Bible readers and students. It is a Self-Pronouncing, Combination Bible, containing the King James and the Revised Versions on the same page.

There can be no doubt that a careful comparison of the King James with the Revised Version must be of great interest and value to every Bible student. Especially must this be the case with Sunday-school teachers. This fact has been the cause of the great popularity of Parallel Bibles, in which the two versions are printed side by side in parallel columns.

The Self-Pronouncing Combination Bible is a combination or a blending of the King James and the Revised Versions, while it contains all the features of the com-

Anderson Concrete in Hall of Fame

Anderson Concrete Inc. has been officially enshrined into the International Swimming Hall of Fame in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., as a 1987 International Swimming Pool Design Award Winner.

A beautiful photographic replica of Anderson Concrete's award-winning swimming pool design will be displayed for the estimated 40,000 annual visitors to the world's only International Swimming Hall of Fame.

1987 marks the first year the International Swimming Hall of Fame has formally recognized individual builders of internationally famous and award-winning swimming pools. Prior recognition has been confined to the heroes of aquatic stars as Johnny Weissmuller, Esther Williams, Buster Crabbe and Mark Spitz. Since the Swimming Hall of Fame's inception in 1965, more than 300 great Olympic achievers from the world of swimming, diving, synchronized swimming and water polo have been inducted into the International Swimming Hall of Fame.

The International Design Awards competition is sponsored by annually by the National Spa and Pool Institute of Alexandria, Va. A distinguished panel of judges selects the winners from more than 800 entries. Only those who have won honor in this competition are considered for enshrinement in the International Swimming Hall of Fame.

Services for John R. Anderson Jr., 79, of Baker Road in Smyrna, who died today at Parkview Hospital in Nashville after an extended illness, will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday at Woodfin Chapel in Smyrna, with burial in Coleman Cemetery. The Reverends Hubert Covington, W.D. Thomason and Carl Scarlett will officiate.

His parents were the late John and Lucy Bay Anderson Sr.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Myrtle Francis Anderson; a son, John Anderson III of Smyrna; two daughters, Bettye Harris of Smyrna, Beverly Freeman of Lexington, Ky.; and six grandchildren.

Friends will be pallbearers.

A member of the Jerusalem Cumberland Presbyterian Church, he was a retired builder.

Visitation with the family will be held after 7 tonight at Woodfin Chapel.
