Joseph Frey was born 19 September 1800 in North Carolina. Some researchers suggest his place of birth as Bethania, Stokes County, North Carolina and his parents as Johann Valentine Frye, Jr. and Maria Catherine Petree (Petrie). He married Mary (Polly) Amis on 24 January 1828, Maury County (probably Mooreville, now Marshall County, Tennessee). From this union, 15 children were born – all chronicled in the family bible.

8) Joseph Frey died 31 October 1858. Mary (Amis) Frey lived until 21 June 1894. Joseph, Mary and four of their children are buried in the (Old) Bear Creek Cemetery, Mooreville, Marshall County, Tennessee.

I hereby give my permission to the Middle Tennessee Genealogical Society to include the genealogical information contained in this Bible in any compilation of Bible records that it may publish in the future.

NOTES TO THE JOSEPH FREY BIBLE

[NOTES:]

1. As of 1964, this Frey Bible was in the possession of James Hill Frye, Mooresville, Tennessee. Mr. James H. Frye died in 1991, therefore, the current owner of the bible is unknown. I, Lucy Bryant Dunaway Zeier, obtained a copy of the bible from the Tennessee State Library and Archives.
2. The copy obtained from the TSLA is a good and readable copy. Any questionable entries have been noted.
3. The transcribed version includes spellings as found. You will note that Frey is found as "Frey," "Frye" and "Fry."
4. Entries have been clarified and/or supplemental information provided. Any added notes have been placed in brackets [].
5. I am a descendant of Joseph Fry and Mary Amis. I would love to correspond with anyone interested in this family: Lucy D. Zeier, 119 Tradewind Street, Clinton, TN 37716. Email: tnconnections@comcast.net
