Clyde Rushing

Murfreesboro — Clyde D. Rushing, 90, died Monday in Boulevard Terrace Nursing Home.

Services were held today at Jennings and Ayers Funeral Home. Burial was in Roselawn Memorial Gardens.

Mr. Rushing was a retired grocer and a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors include three sons, Elvis Rushing and James G. Rushing, both of Murfreesboro, and Ernest B. Rushing, Franklin; a brother, William E. Rushing, Port Richey, Fla.; two sisters, Mrs. Gordon Reynolds, Huntland, and Mrs. R.L. Beachboard, Bell Buckle; six grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

Elvis Rushing

Services for Elvis Rushing, 84, of Spring Street, who died Sunday, July 29, at Middle Tennessee Medical Center, will be 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at Woodfin Memorial Chapel with burial in Evergreen Cemetery. Charles Mullins, Tony Holt and C.B. Arnette will officiate.

He was the son of the late C.B. and Pauline Johns Rushing. He was preceded in death by brothers Ernest and James Rushing.

He is survived by his wife, Lurlene Dill Rushing; son and daughter-in-law, Joe and Gay Rushing of Springfield; daughter and son-in-law Betty and David Markham of Dothan, Ala.; and grandchildren Thomas Briant Markham, Jonathan David Markham, Mary Kate Markham, Daniel Rushing, Shelby Rushing and Andrew Elvis Rushing.

A native of Nashville, he was a member and former elder of Kingwood Heights Church of Christ. He served in the U.S. Air Force Medical Corp. during World War II. He was owner of Rushing Supermarket and Pops Salvage before his retirement in 1977. He was an avid sportsman and had navigated many of the great waterways of the world with his friends. Much of the travel was done on a pontoon boat with his good friend C.B. Arnette and their friends. He was former member of the board of directors of Middle Tennessee Christian School and Stones River Manor.

Memorials may be sent to the above organizations and to the Kingwood Heights Church of Christ Mission Fund.

Visitation will be 4-8 p.m. today at Woodfin Memorial Chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dill Rushing

Welch—Rushing Rites Solemnized

Crieve Hall Church of Christ, Nashville, was the setting for the wedding on March 3, at high noon, of Miss Frances Gayle Welch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip T. Welch of Dillard Court, Nashville, and Joe Dill Rushing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elvis Rushing of North Spring St., Murfreesboro.

Dr. Joe D. Gray, minister of the Woodson Chapel

Church of Christ, officiated at the ceremony following the program of nuptial music given by a thirteen-member a cappella chorus.

For the wedding occasion, the altar was centered with a spiral brass candelabrum holding myriads of lighted tapers and clustered with white gladioli, mums and spring flowers. Candles in three-branched candelabra flanked the center arrangement.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a candlelight gown of chantilly lace in Queen Elizabeth design. The sleeves were fashioned of chiffon over lace and the full skirt of the gown was trimmed with re-embroidered lace. The bride's cathedral train fell from a Juliet cap. She carried a cascade arrangement of orchids and roses attached to a Bible belonging to the bridegroom's grandfather, the late Clyde B. Rushing, given to him by his wife in 1909.

Mrs. Willie Rushing 1948 Honored on Birthday

Open house was held Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rushing, on the Lebanon road, in special compliment to Mr. Rushing's mother, Mrs. Willie Short Rushing, the occasion marking her eighty-fifth birthday.

A profusion of gift arrangements of yellow chrysanthemums and white gladioli decorated the receiving rooms.

Forming the receiving line were the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Rushing; the honoree, who was attired in a black crepe dress, with an orchid at the shoulder; Mrs. Ruth Spears, Mrs. R. L. Beachboard and Mrs. Gordan Reynolds, daughters of the honoree.

The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth and held a center arrangement of the yellow chrysanthemums and gladioli. Yellow tapers, burning in silver holders, flanked the centerpiece. Mrs. James Rushing and Mrs. Elvis Rushing presided at the table. They were assisted by Mrs. Ross Spalding and Mrs. Alvin Reynolds.

Mrs. Ernest Rushing kept the guest register. Duncan and Nancy Rushing and Mike Spalding, great-grandchildren of the honoree, presented the gifts to her, while guests joined in the singing of "Happy Birthday."

The Gospel Singers from the North Boulevard Church of Christ called in the late afternoon, and sang a group of songs, which were much enjoyed by Mrs. Rushing and the guests.

Out-of-town guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Gordan Reynolds, Mrs. Alvin Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Spalding and son, Mike of Huntland, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Beachboard and son, Beavis of Bell BuckleBuckle; Mrs. Jimmy Ruth Robertson of Wartrace; Mrs. Ruth Sears of Detroit, Mich.; William Rushing of Detroit and son, Billy of San Juan, Trinidad; Mr. and Mrs. John Rushing, Mrs. Maggie Rushing Young, Mrs. R. E. Dunnaway and Luther Vaughter, all of Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. John Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rushing and son, Duncan of Nashville; Mr. and Mrs. Will Beard and Mrs. Catherine Robert-son of San Juan.

MRS. WILLIE RUSHING, who was honored Sunday at a lovely open house, given by MR. and MRS. CLYDE RUSHING, in celebration of her birthday, said of the occasion, that she could not remember a more wonderful day in here entire eighty-five years, except of course, that of her wedding day. . . .

Over a hundred friends called to wish MRS. RUSHING many happy returns and to bring numerous lovely birthday gifts. . . .

Clyde Rushings Are Honored On 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Rushing of North Spring Street were hosts to an open house Sunday afternoon, March 12 honoring Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bryant Rushing on their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

The house was decorated throughout with gift arrangements of yellow roses, yellow carnations, chrysanthemums and other spring flowers.

The serving table was overlaid in white satin bordered with gold braid. The centerpiece was a golden cherub epergne filled with yellow carnations interspersed with acacia and fern. The candelabrum attached to the epergne contained five tall yellow burning tapers. The tiered pale yellow frosted anniversary cake tinted to match the carnations of the centerpieces was the decoration for the sideboard. It was surrounded by greenery and yellow jonquils and flanked by lighted yellow tapers in candelabra. Yellow frosted petit-fours centered with colorful icing flowers, ginger ale punch, ham biscuits and sliced cheese roll were served.

Receiving the guests with Mr. and Mrs. Rushing were their three sons, Ernest, James and Elvis. Mr. E. B. Wrather, Nashville, who was an attendant at their wedding, received with them during part of the afternoon. Mrs. Bob Beachboard, Bell Buckle; Mrs. James W. Williams, Nashville and Mrs. Elvis Rushing greeted the guests in the entrance hall. Mrs. James Lauderdale, Nashville, kept the guest register. Those assisting in serving were Mrs. James Rushing, Mrs. Ernest Rushing, Miss Lillian Brown and the granddaughters, Nancy, Evelyn, Priscilla and Betty Rushing. Mrs. O. E. Sears, Mr. and Mrs. William Rushing, Michigan and Mrs. Gordon Reynolds, Huntland, Tennessee, sisters and brother of Mr. Rushing, assisted in the hospitality at various places throughout the house.

More than 160 guests called including the following out-of-town guests: Mr. Gordon Reynold, Mr. Alvin Reynolds and daughter, Huntland; Mr. James Lauderdale, Mrs. Charles Neal and daughter, Mrs. Louise Dickens, Mrs. Lena Baldy, Mr. R. I.

Wrather, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Benz and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ben R. Gattis, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Warner and children, Mrs. John N. Newton, Jr., Mrs. Chumbley, Mrs. E. B. Estes and children, Mrs. Addie Estes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oevens, Mr. and Mrs. Lem Yearwood, all of Nashville; Mr. and Mrs. Benvis Beachboard and children, Bell Buckle; Miss Lillie Short, Old Hickory; Mrs. John McArlin, Tullahoma, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. John Rushing, Lebanon; Miss Lillian Currie, Maryland.
