INTRODUCTION

The Carruth Family Papers, 1775-1986, are centered around the Carruth Family of North Carolina, Tennessee and Texas. The Carruth Family Papers are a gift of Glenn R. Carruth, Tulia, Texas, and Ted Carruth, Nashville, Tennessee.

The material in this finding guide measures 5.46 linear feet. There are no restrictions on the material. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Carruth Family Papers may be made for scholarly research.
SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Carruth Family Papers, containing approximately 3,000 items, span the period 1775-1986. The collection is composed of mainly genealogical data, but also includes applications, birth certificates, cemetery records, census records, marriage records, obituaries, photographs, printed material and several miscellaneous items.

The mass of the collection is comprised of genealogical data. Lela Grant Carruth (1918-1986) was a family genealogist who compiled extensive genealogical information on the Carruth family as well as allied lines. Among the family histories found in the collection are Bledsoe, Braly, Burnett, Carruth, Craighead, Cronkite, D'Spain, Denny, Grant, Hawkins, Horn, Miller, Noblitt, Packwood and Tyler. A complete list of surnames is found in the container list.

Among the miscellaneous items are birth and marriage certificates for the children of Glenn R. Carruth, a cemetery register for Rosehill Cemetery, Swisher County, Texas and census records for Wilson County, Tennessee, and Grayson County, Texas. Also included in the collection is a complete copy of Lela Carruth's work, From Whence They Came, in addition to other printed works dealing with the Carruth family.

The value of the Carruth Family Papers resides in the vast source of genealogical data on the Carruth family and its allied families in Tennessee, South Carolina, Georgia, Texas, and California.

GENEALOGICAL CHARTS

The following charts trace the genealogy of the major families of this collection. Where a number appears over a box, this indicates children by the second marriage. Where actual dates of marriages are not known, the names of spouses will be given with no marriage information listed.
