ORGANIZATIONAL HISTORY NOTE

The first chapter of the Tennessee Society, Daughters of the American Revolution was organized on December 18, 1892, by Mrs. Harvey Mathes of Memphis. The first chapter was named the Dolly Madison Chapter of Memphis, but was later renamed the Hermitage Chapter. There are 103 chapters within the State of Tennessee. The state is divided into five districts: Chickasaw, Cumberland, Sequoyah, Cherokee, and Appalachian.
SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Daughters of the American Revolution, Tennessee Society Records and Collected Materials, 1894-1997, were gifts from various members of the Tennessee chapters, including the Cumberland Chapter, the James Robertson Chapter, the General Francis Nash Chapter, the Margaret Gaston Chapter, the William Lee Chapter, General Thomas Benton Smith Chapter, and the Admiral David Farragut Chapter. The collection consists of 19.25 cubic feet, which includes 15 oversized boxes and 1 oversized folder. The collection is arranged according to chapter and then alphabetically and chronologically. There are no restrictions on this collection. It is primarily composed of chapter minutes, photographs, yearbooks, programs, scrapbooks, and essays.

The Admiral David Farragut Chapter Series (Series I) includes “Various Alabama-Tennessee Cemetery Records collected by Stella Sewell Lile and Family Information assembled by Alice Dubose Inklebarger, 1973.”

The Cumberland Chapter Series (Series II & Series XI) primarily includes historical essays written by members from various chapters as well as chapter minutes. The chapter minutes include 1892-December 1894; June 1905-March 10, 1910; April 13, 1910-1912; June 10, 1915-March 10, 1921; April 14, 1921-March 11, 1926; April 8, 1926-April 10, 1930; October 3, 1930-May 12, 1938; October 13, 1938-July 12, 1948; October 14, 1948-May 6, 1966; October 7, 1966-April 10, 1986, 1972, and 1984; chapter yearbooks, 1901-1990; and 4 scrapbooks.

The General Francis Nash Chapter Series (Series III) includes newspaper clippings and meeting minutes, 1979-1989. Also included are two audio reels featuring the “Tennessee Talk Back” radio program, which includes DAR members as guests, 1969, and “A Tribute to the Flag of the United States” from WLAC Radio with Mrs. Albert Whitley, 1970. The audio reels are located in the vault at II-C-5v.

The Margaret Gaston Chapter Series (Series V) includes the chapter’s history, 1897-1995, compiled by Phyllis M. McCullough.

The Scrapbook Series (VI) contains 26 scrapbooks from the Cumberland Chapter, the James Robertson Chapter, the Gen. Francis Nash Chapter, the Thomas Benton Smith Chapter, the Old Glory Chapter, and the William Lee Chapter, all of which concern chapter activities. There is also a scrapbook concerning Gen. Douglas MacArthur’s military career, a scrapbook on historic homes in Tennessee, and nine scrapbooks concerning activities of the Tennessee Society, Daughters of the American Revolution.
The State Society Series (VII) includes audit reports, various booklets concerning DAR activities, numerous essays and state rolls of honor, newspaper clippings, newsletters, State Regents Council materials, panoramic photographs from the DAR National Convention, 1927, 1930, 1966-1971, 1973, and programs for the State Conferences, 1916-1993, and the Continental Congress, 1948-1984. Also included are yearbooks for the Bonny Kate Chapter, the Campbell Chapter, the Fort Nashborough Chapter, the Jackson-Madison Chapter, the Jane Knox Chapter, the Nancy Ward Chapter, and the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution. There are also chapter histories for the Adam Dale Chapter, the Campbell Chapter, the Col. Thomas McCrory Chapter, the Commodore Perry Chapter, the Cumberland Chapter, the David Craig Chapter, the Gen. Felix K. Zollicoffer Chapter, and the Robert Cartwright Chapter.

The Daughters of the American Revolution, Tennessee Genealogical Records Series (Series VIII) consists of 58 volumes of genealogical records that are located in the Manuscripts Reading Room.

The Robert Cartwright Chapter Series (IX) includes typed copies of articles and hand-written drafts of historical sketches to be published as articles. The remainder of the collection is predominantly financial documents, correspondence, and other documents related to the chapter’s activities. Note: This series was added later and was not microfilmed.

The Tennessee Society Children of American Revolution Series (X) includes several rosters of area societies and a full listing of Tennessee officers as well as other state officers. This series also holds by-laws, yearbooks, handbooks, the Liberty Bell newsletters, and a code of behavior issued by Virginia Gooch Watson. Note: This series was added later and was not microfilmed.

The Cumberland Chapter Addition Series (XI) includes Effie Jeanette Cantrell Rudy’s application, several certificates for Virginia Gooch Watson, a chapter yearbook for 2012-2013, genealogy on the East family, some photographs of members, and the Cumberland Courier newsletter for April 2013. Also included are email correspondence, event information on the Chapter’s 120th Anniversary, and the George Washington luncheon. One folder of note is the Concord Smokehouse dedication which holds photographs, a dedication program, newspaper clippings, and information regarding the process of getting the site preserved and ready for the dedication. Note: This series was added later and was not microfilmed.

The State Society Addition Series (XII) includes two directories dating 1975-1980, an essay entitled the “The Captain’s Flag” by Mrs. Jeanette C. Rudy, five photographs from the DAR State Conference in 2005, and a newsletter of Tennessee DAR News, July 2007. Finally, there is a ribbon, some photographs, and a program for the 100th Jubilee State Conference. Note: This series was added later and was not microfilmed.
The Old Glory Chapter Series (XIII) includes one 8x10 photograph of chapter members taken on October 9, 1997. The group is standing outside Shuff’s Music Co., on 3rd Avenue N. in Franklin, Tennessee, the site of their organizational meeting in 1897. Member’s names are included. Note: This series was added later and was not microfilmed.

The French Lick Chapter Series (Series XIV) includes meeting minutes dating from their first meeting on December 13, 1939 all the way up to 2017. There are also numerous yearbooks, awards and certificates, programs, treasurers’ reports, and a scrapbook. Note: This series was added later and was not microfilmed.
