INTRODUCTION

These photostats of the correspondence of Felix Grundy, lawyer; member of the Kentucky legislature, 1800-1806; member of Congress from Tennessee, 1811-1815; member of Tennessee legislature, 1819-1825; member of United States Senate from Tennessee, 1833-1838, 1839-1840; Attorney General in Van Buren’s Cabinet, 1838-1839; are copies made from Library of Congress holdings and were transferred from the State Library Division. Eight letters are from Martin Van Buren Papers but all of them are about Mr. Grundy. One original letter, the gift of Miss Margaret Warden, Nashville, Tennessee, has been added to the collection.

The materials in this finding aid measure .42 linear feet. There are no restrictions on the materials. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Felix Grundy Papers may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

These papers, composed of 34 letter (33 photostats and one original) of Felix Grundy (1777-1840) for the period of 1820-1840, were written primarily to James Knox Polk and are concerned with Tennessee and national politics. The letters deal with running the boundary between Tennessee and Kentucky, federal and state elections, assumption of state debts, the tariff, political campaigning, and the national banks. Names prominently mentioned include John Bell, William Carroll, Ephraim Foster, Andrew Jackson, Cave Johnson, S. H. Laughlin, Martin Van Buren and others.

In addition to the above letters of Felix Grundy there are eight letters written to Martin Van Buren by William Carroll, A.C. Flagg, Andrew Jackson, Amos Kendall, James Knox Polk, S. Penn, Jr., and Martin Van Buren. These letters all deal with politics and Felix Grundy’s qualifications for office. The originals of these photostats are in the Library of Congress.
