MICROFILMED
INTRODUCTION

This finding aid focuses on the papers of William P. Hickerson, Sr., lawyer, jurist, and businessman, born in Franklin County, Tennessee. Spanning the years 1820-1896, the papers contain numerous land records involving Hickerson, Sr., and others in the sale and transfer of substantial tracts of land, mainly in Franklin and Coffee County. Also contained within the collection are copious court records produced by Hickerson, Sr., and numerous account records pertaining to promissory notes. The collection also comprises documents created by his son, William P. Hickerson, Jr., in the form of missives and records produced during his presidency of the Stone Fort Paper Company. Other items within the collection include correspondence, estate papers, notes, publications, slave records, and writings.

The materials were discovered at an estate sale in Denver, Colorado, by Mrs. Christine Genovese of the Colorado Historical Society, Denver, Colorado. These materials as donated by Mrs. Genovese were housed in a single Paige box and arranged in no specific order. It should be noted that the unprocessed materials had been stored for several years within conditions which lacked humidity and temperature control prior to their transfer to the Tennessee State Library and Archives.

The materials in this finding aid measured 1.0 cubic feet while in its original box, but was reduced to 0.84 cubic feet by the removal of numerous canceled checks written by Hickerson, Sr., and his son William P. Hickerson, Jr. An example of some of these checks, written mainly during the mid 19th century, has been retained within the processed collection. There are no restrictions on the material. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the William P. Hickerson, Sr., Papers may be made for scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The William P. Hickerson, Sr. Papers, containing approximately 600 items, span the period 1820-1896. The collection is composed of account books, an announcement, correspondence, court records, estate papers, financial records, land records, legal briefs, legal records, lists, McMinnville and Manchester Railroad Company documents, a memorial, notes, publications, recommendations, a report, slave records, Stone Fort Paper Company documents, tax records, Tennessee Supreme Court records, and writings.

A major portion of the collection consists of court records spanning Hickerson's law career. During the 1840s, Hickerson began his law career in Coffee County, Tennessee, with Thomas Powers and created one of Coffee County's earliest law firms-- Hickerson & Powers. In addition to handling legal matters, Hickerson and Powers were involved in various real estate transactions.

In 1850, Hickerson was selected to serve on the Board of Commissioners of the newly chartered McMinnville & Manchester Railroad Company. This railroad operation, funded in large part by Hickerson's brother, Litle D. Hickerson, was one of the first in Tennessee. After ten years of service the railroad was sold to the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway. Much of the correspondence and court records pertain to the creation and maintenance of the business.

At the close of the Civil War, Hickerson served as the Sixth judicial district Circuit Court judge from 1865-1867 and again from 1869-1877. See section concerning court records (Box 1) for proceedings presided over by Hickerson.

Within the accounts are promissory notes, for several of which Hickerson served as a surety. Also included within the accounts section is a bill drawn up by the United States Government for hay purchased from Hickerson by Federal forces during the Civil War. Included in the land records is an 1836 document which involved Jacob McGavock and his relinquishment of a five thousand acre plot. Some of the land records (See Box 2) show evidence of contractual agreements between Hickerson and free blacks involving tenant farming, a precursor to the practice of sharecropping.

Within the Tennessee Supreme Court records is an 1859 court case involving the assessment of attorney's fees and the inclusion of slaves as parties to a lawsuit (See Box 2). The section on the Stone Fort Paper Company pertains to Hickerson's son, William Jr., who served four terms as a Tennessee state senator (1905-1907; 1911-1913), representing Coffee, Bedford, and Moore Counties. William Jr., also served as Tennessee state treasurer from 1913-1915. In 1879 he organized and built the paper mill which provided paper to several Midstate newspapers.

The William P. Hickerson, Sr., Papers provide information on Tennessee's early legal system and Coffee County's introduction to the railroad and papermaking industry.
